As the Copperhead leaders are just now burdening down the mails with documents grossly misrepresenting and falsifying the financial record of Grant's administration, we trust that no intelligent voter will fail to examine the brief, but telling, official table from the Treasury Department, which we publish in another column. It shows how much and wherein the revenues have been increased, the reduction in taxation, and amount of debt paid since Grant went into office, compared with the revenues of the same period under Johnson's administration. It is taken from the official record, certified to by Mr. Richardson, of the Treasury Department, and is a full answer to miserable perversions with which the Democratic masses are being deluded. It is, moreover, a record of which every Republican has reason to be proud—attesting, as it does, the fidelity and integrity of the Republican National Administration.

THE Somerset Herald says of the Congressional campaign:

We hope and expect to beat Mr. Meyers on the ground that he is the representative of a party that was devoted to slavery, justified and defended secession, sympathized with the rebellion, contended against universal suffrage, opposed and still opposes reconstruction, favored repudiation, is adverse to the reduction of the public debt and the reduction of taxation, and committed to and the advocate of Free Trade, and the consequent reduction of the wages of labor; and we confidently expect to elect Mr. Cessna because he is put forth as the representative of the party that abolished slavery, established universal suffrage, gave liberty to and protected the civil rights of our people, defeated rebellion and repudiation, built the Pacific Railroad, secured pensions to Union soldiers, their wives and children, reduced the National debt one hundred and forty-six millions in sixteen months, reduced taxation eighty millions in one bill, and passed a revenue tariff with full incidental protection to American labor.

Surely here are issues broad, and deep, and distinctive, and of absording interest sufficient to enlist the intelligent action of the people, without descending into the cesspool of personal detraction and abuse.

THE Democracy are disgusted with the Republican party for resurrecting the dead issues of the past. No wonder. The record of the Democratic party since it became debauched by the Slave power—its relations to Treason and Rebellion—its infidelity to the true principles of Civil Liberty—its agency in bankrupting the Government, in precipitating the country into a bloody War, in carrying mourning and death into innumerable households, and in rolling up a burdensome national debt—is an ugly one, and ill calculated to commend that party to popular favor. But it is a record that must be faced. No ingenuity can wipe it out. Year by year, it should be held up and thoroughly branded into the memory of every patriot, as a warning to future parties.

GENERAL GARFIELD, who has been in Washington for a few days, speaks quite confidently of the result of the approching election in Ohio. He says that the discussions thus far have caused the people to increase their appreciation of the work done by Congress at the late session, particularly the work of the last month, and that there is no reason to apprehend any material change from former elections. He regards it possible that the Republicans may lose one district in the State through divisions therein, but considers it equally possible that they may gain one of the Cincinnati districts, now represented by a Democrat.

THE insinuation of the Compiler, that our arraignment of the mis-management of the County offices, grows simply out of a "hankering after a little county printing," hardly rises to the dignity of wit, much less of argument. Nor is the explanation likely to be satisfactory to tax-payers, who would prefer to be advised how it comes that we have a Debt of $50,000, and a higher rate of taxation than any County in the State. The thread-bare story of a "new court-house" wont answer, as the accounts show that all the Court-house expenses were paid in full in 1858 and 1859, more than ten years ago. The first we hear of the debt is in 1869.

THE veteran Andrew Stewart, better known as "Tariff Andy," is the Republican nominee for Congress in the Fayette, Westmoreland and Indiana district, now represented by John Covode. Mr. Stewart was a prominent and influential member of Congress in the days of Clay, Webster and Calhoun. He has long since retired from the political arena, but the revival of the Free-trade heresy by the Democratic party has re-called him into active political relations. His election we take for granted.

B. F. MEYERS seeks support on the ground of his favoring the Border Damage Bill last winter. In supporting that bill Mr. Meyers only did his duty, and what every other citizen of the Border counties did. Mr. Cessna supported it just as warmly as did Mr. Meyers, left his post at Washington, and went to Harrisburg to urge in person its passage. Mr. Meyers knows this. Hence his insinuation of Mr. Cessna's hostility to the payment of the Border Damages, is ungenerous.

THE Compiler is evidently afraid of Col. Ephraim Myers' acknowledged popularity, and continues to abuse him.—Col. Myers' known liberality and generosity will not suffer by these malignant attacks. The Compiler has a habit of saying ugly things about Republican candidates—from President Lincoln and Gen. Grant down. It would be strange if Col. Myers were made an exception.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

THERE has been no fighting in France of any consequence during the past week. The crushing victory of Sedan used up the French armies in the field, the balance being cooped in Metz, Strasbourg, Toul, and other fortified places. At present all interest centers around Paris. The Prussian armies have been closing in around the doomed city, which can only be saved from bombardment and capture by the French yielding to the Prussian demands—now understood to be the cession of Alsace and part of Lorraine to Germany, with the fortresses of Metz and Strasbourg, as guarantees for future peace. It is officially announced that Prussia will not interfere with the internal policy of France, leaving her to determine for herself as between a Republic, an Empire, or a Monarchy. The trouble, at present, is to find a Government to deal with, competent to enforce any terms of peace that may be agreed to. The Government at Paris is self-appointed, and purely provisional, and may at any day be set aside, either by the Imperialists on the one hand or the Red Republicans on the other. The latter are already at work denouncing the Ministry and fomenting revolution, so that Paris is in a bad position—Prussian cannon threatening destruction from without, and a restless mob, ready at any moment to re-instate the guillotine, within.

The provisional Government seems to appreciate the difficulties by which it is environed, and would to-day negotiate terms of peace with Prussia, but for dread of the Red Republicans, who continue the frantic cry of "war to the death." The better class of citizens are anxious for an early peace, in order permanently to establish a Republican system of government founded on the popular will. The difficulties of the situation are increased by the plottings of the Orleanists and Imperialists, both of which parties are hostile to a Republic. Jules Favre, the head of the Provisional Government, has been anxious to negotiate an armistice, and was arranging a personal interview with Bismarck at the Prussian head-quarters.

There were daily skirmishes outside of the Paris fortifications, between French troops and the beslegers, as the latter approach the city. Metz and Strasbourg still hold out, but the latter must surrender before many days, the heavy fire of Prussian guns having reduced it to a wreck.

Most of the Ministry of the Provisional Government have left Paris and gone to Tours, a fortified city in the Southwest of France.

The formidable French navy in the Baltic having proved a failure for blockading purposes, has been called home to protect Havre, Cherbourg and other French naval ports. Official notice has been given of the raising of the blockade of the German ports. The heavy ironclads sent to the Baltic were to be followed by transports with troops to cooperate with the French armies marching into Prussia from the south. But as the latter never got across the Rhine, the entire programme failed.

From Italy we have nothing of importance beyond the announcement that the Italian armies were before Rome, and were expected in a few days to take possession—if necessary by assault. Negotiations with the Papal Government were in progress to avoid, if possible, the necessity of an attack on the city.

A despatch from Florence says the Italian troops have entered Rome, and are now in full possession. The foreign legions offered a slight resistance, which, however, ceased by order of the Pope.—There was great joy among the people of Rome and throughout Italy.

MR. MEYERS, the Democratic nominee for Congress, begs piteously to have the "dead issues of the past" ignored. His war record is a little inconvenient just now, and he is naturally anxious to have a veil drawn over it. Not only does he object to having that record held up to the people, but he is getting certificates to cover his disloyalty. In the last number of his paper, the Bedford Gazette, we have a card from B. H. Lyons, who signs himself "Late Capt. Co. D. 55th. P. V. and Capt. Co. I. 22nd Pa. Cavalry," in which the writer asserts that Mr. Meyers was at heart a patriot and "foremost in aiding the recruiting officers of the Government." It will take a good many certificates to plaster over what Mr. Meyers wrote and printed during the war in the Bedford Gazette and Harrisburg Patriot; but as there will naturally be some inquiry as to the "F. H. Lyons," who thus comes to Mr. Meyers' relief, we extract from the Chambersburg Repository:

This Capt. Lyons is the military hero who telegraphed to Andrew Johnson, when the House of Representatives impeached him in the spring of 1868, and offered him to march a company of his braves to Washington to drive out Congress and overthrow the government. Why his services were not accepted by the august tailor we have never learned. Let no man hereafter doubt the loyalty of Benjamin F. Meyers. Lyons proves it, and Lyons is above suspicion. The ugly part of this business appears to be that Meyers is obliged to array Lyons against his own written declarations, to prove Meyers to have been a falsifier during the war in order to prove Meyers loyal now.

MR. MEYERS, in the last number of his paper, the Bedford Gazette says he "is being warmly supported by the People of Adams, Franklin and Fulton, without distinction of party, because of his earnest and unflinching advocacy of the bill to reimburse the sufferers of the border counties for losses during the war." Mr. Meyers ought to know whereof he writes. But if seems he didn't mean what he wrote during the war, when he assailed President Lincoln as a despot, apologized for the assassin Booth, denounced the conscription laws, and characterized the war as murder; and probably he don't mean what he writes now. At all events the statement that Mr. Meyers is being "supported by the people without distinction of party," is entirely new in this section. If he believes it, the October election will show him to be as widely mistaken as when he held, in common with the Copperhead leaders, that the Rebels couldn't be whipped.

DEFACING BILLS.—We have repeatedly called attention to the practice of boys of tearing down, and otherwise defacing the handbills, posters and dodgers of our business men. For the benefit of persons so engaged, we print the following section of the law in force in regard to this habit:

"That any persons caught mutilating, destroying, tearing down, or removing any show bill, placard, programme, poster or other advertisement, posted on any wall, fence, bill board, or other structures, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred for the first offence, and for the second offence thepenalty shall be imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months."

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

FRANKLIN.—George Flack, of Chambersburg whose illness from lock-jaw, the result of a slight puncture in the foot, we noted last week, died on Wednesday. Conrad Shoemaker, a carpenter, employed on the building of the roof of the new court-house in Chambersburg, fell to the ground, breaking his arm and seriously bruising his head. His recovery is doubtful.—On Monday afternoon last, Capt. S. A. Bradley, residing near Mercersburg left home, with his gun, for the purpose of hunting game. On arriving at a farm he owned, about two miles from Mercersburg, on the Greencastle pike, he entered the woods. In a short time his tenant heard the report of the gun, but thought of nothing serious until he saw Mr. Bradely's horse coming near the house. He then went to the woods, where, to his great horror, he found Mr. Bradley dead, with the back of his head shot off. He at once gave the alarm. It is supposed that the gun went off, accidentally, as Mr. Bradley was getting on or off of his horse.—A son of Rev. E. W. Kirby, of the M. E. Church, Chambersburg, on Monday evening, fell over the banister at the head of the stairs to the lower floor, breaking an arm and injuring his hip.

YORK.—Rev. J. H. Menges' church, York, was entered on Thusday night and the Mission box robbed of $60.—A shoe factory is to be started at York by Messrs. Lewis, of Massachusets.—On Friday night a valuable horse was stolen from the premises of Peter Eyster, Jackson township, on the following Sunday, the horse and thief, Micheal Herman, were captured near Goldsborough.—The Germans of Hanover celebrated the Prussian victories on Monday a week with a torchlight procession, &c. Speeches were made by Dr. M. L. G. Pfeiffer, of New Oxford, Jesse D. Newman and M. D. Gebhart.—There was considerable excitement last week in York over a mad dog belonging to a Mr. Ruhl, which bit three of Ruhl's children, Charles Lepean, B. F. Hantz and a little daughter of Wm F. Williams.—The Grand Circle of the new order of B. U. (H. F.) of Pennsylvania met in Hanover on Wednesday.

WASHINGTON.—Hog cholera is prevailing in portions of Washington and Frederick counties, Md, and has carried off many hogs. One farmer, named Keiffer, residing about three miles from Clearspring, lost seventy within the past few weeks, another twenty-five, and others from one to ten. In the Southern part of Frederick county the malady is represented as very fatal, some farmers having lost their entire stock.

John Kitts, the oldest resident of Baltimore, died on Sunday at the age of 108 years and some months.

GEORGE WELLS is the most extensive farmer in Iowa. His form embraces 8,000 acres, nearly all under cultivation.

JOSEPH RODMAN, of Benton county, Iowa, got in a rage at something the other day, began to swear and suddenly fell dead.

TRUMBULL county, Ohio, reports to the auditor of the state 35,985 head of cattle; a larger number by 1,290 head than any other county in the State.

A London despatch says that the stock market there is improving under reports of peace negotiations, and discounts are much easier.

Vice President Colfax, in a letter to his friend Theodore Tilton, declares his determination to retire from public life at the end of his Vice Presidential term.

THE Rev. Dr. James, of Bustleton, Penn., is the oldest Methodist preacher in the world. He is in his ninety-fourth year, and has been a preacher for seventy years.

Andrew Johnson came to the surface again at Gallatin, Tennessee, on Saturday, where he repeated the same speech which the people of the country became familiarized with four years ago.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the United States met in Baltimore on Monday. The annual reports of the Grand Sire and Grand Secretary were read, showing the order to be in a prosperous condition.

A despatch from Bremen announces that in consequence of the withdrawal of the French from the Baltic, the steamers of the North German Lloyd lines are to begin running between that port and the ports of the United States on the 1st of October.

THE FIRST ELECTION in Wyoming territory took place in 1869. There was then a Democratic majority of 1,436 in an aggregate poll of 5,366 votes The returns at present give the Republicans a majority of about 200, in the election of William T. Jones as Delegate to Congress. A Republican gain of about 1,500.

RETURNS from Maine, very nearly complete, give Perham, Republican, for Governor, 8,875 majority, the vote being for Perham, 54,031, and for Roberts, Democrat, 45,176. Chamberlin's majority in the same towns last year was 7,982. A gain of 893 in the Republican majority in view of the great combination to defeat the ticket, will do very well. The aggregate Republican majority on Congress is two or three thousand greater than that for Governor.

IS IT MEDICINE?—A friend of ours, who hails from one of the upper districts of South Carolina, called at the Pick office, and among other novelties, he mentioned "Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," and stated as a fact, that in his section of the country, nearly all of the physicians, in certain cases, when they deemed ardent spirits necessary to prolong or save life, invariably used these "Schnapps," justly regarding it as the only spirits that could be procured pure and unadulterated. He also stated that this medicine or "Schnapps" was becoming the only beverage sold on the great stage or railroad routes. He says those physicians who have used and analyzed it, state that for diseases such as gravel, gout, rheumatism, &c., it is incomparable. It

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

THE KNABE PIANO.— We refer with special pleasure to the advertisement of the great Piano Manufactory of Messrs. WM. KNABE & Co., of Baltimore.

This factory is now one of the largest in the world; it is a magnificent five story structure, fronting an entire block on Eutaw st., and covering, together with the Lumber Yard attached, some two and one half acres of ground. Three hundred and fifty men are constantly employed turning out over forty instruments per week.

The Knabe Piano has by its superiority not only well nigh driven those of Northern manufacture from the home market, but also enjoys a large sale in New York, Philadelphia and throughout the entire North and west, besides their largely increased Southern trade.

The most talented musicians of the day, both amateur and professional, testify to their superiority, and wherever exhibited they have never failed to carry off the highest awards over all competition, having received no less than 65 first premiums. During the last season they were used simultaneously by the most distinguished artists at the Opera Houses in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, &c. There is certainly no instrument made, more durable than the KNABE PIANO, none but the best workmen being employed and only the very best of materials used. 1t

CESSNA VS. MEYERS.

John Cessna, of Bedford, and B. F. Myers, editor of the Harrisburg Patriot, are the present contestants for congressional honors in this district. I desire to call attention to a few salient points in their respective claims to popular support. Mr. Cessna has ever been a Democrat. He stood with his party—was one of its shining lights. His friends were numerous, influential, and ardent in their attachment to him. Office and its emoluments were freely bestowed upon him. And had he chosen not to sever his connection with the democratic party, still further advancement awaited him. But, when pistol politicians, in and out of Congress—demagogues, and unscrupulous oligarchs—had plunged the country into a causeless and sanguinary war, he, impelled by his sense of right and justice, forsook the party that had no aid to give the Government in her hour of trial—no comfort to furnish the soldier on his way to the field of battle, and, perchance, of death —no honest condemnation of traitors.

When armed treason strove to overthrow the Government, and destroy the Country, Mr. Cessna, heeding the responsibilities and duty of a patriot, instantly came forward in behalf of the Nation—raised his voice in manly denunciation of the traitors, and their treason—became the soldier's friend—aided him to the extent of his ability—sympathized with him in his trials and sufferings, and to-day holds that it is the duty, and should be the pleasure of the Government, to reward, in so far as it has power, the men who shed their blood and periled their lives in its defence.

During the trying days of the Rebellion he gave the Government and the Republican party a cordial and earnest support, and to-day Mr. Cessna believes that the wellfare and true greatness of our country, depend largely upon the success of the Republican party. He has full faith in its principles, and gives to it unconditional allegiance. He repudiates, in toto, all connection with a party that affiliates or sympathizes with rebels—makes a mockery of elections, and sends reckless demagogues, or their next of kin, prize-fighters, as representatives to the councils of the Nation. Mr. Cessna, moreover, is a firm friend of the policy of protecting American Industry against the ruinous competition with European pauper labor. Instead of paralysing and breaking down, he would encourage the investment of capital, in industrial enterprises —foster all manufactnring and mechanical interest—and build up a home market for agricultural productions.

Such, in brief, is Mr Cessna's record. In another article we may have something to say of his opponent, B. F. Meyers.

A CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—Messrs. ATTENTION FARMERS.—Try the celebrated Patent Elastic Rubber-lined Collars, Saddles, and Pads. SAVE MONEY.—Pending the agitation of the Funding Bill, which will evidently depreciate Government Bonds, persons would do well by reading the advertisement of the "Gettysburg National Bank," in another column, and exchange their Government Bonds and realize a handsome profit thereby, and obtain as investment as safe and profitable. tf

TO THE NERVOUS.

The natural result of exhaustion of strength by excessive labor or action, is a feeling of weakness, dullness, heaviness, weariness, languor of body or mind, &c. Persons of a weak constitution, or whose habits are sedentary, frequently complain of this relaxed condition of the vital energies; and when persons of a nervous temperament are thus weakened and debilitated, disease inevitably follows, unless it is at once checked and overcome. All who suffer from these causes alike require a remedy which will strengthen the system without exciting it, and awake a feeling of true enjoyment, so that life may become a source of pleasure. MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has won its way into the confidence of thousands of this class of persons, who warmly endorse it as the best invigorating agent, and the most potent and genial of all tonics and alterntives for strengthening and restoring the physical constitution. FESTIVAL.—The Festival of the M. E. Church in Agricultural Hall realized $200.

BARN BURNT.—The barn on the farm of Mr. John L. Fisher, in Germany township, was destroyed by fire on the 13th. inst., with the year's crops. The origin is attributed to accident.

CHANGE OF FIRM.—Messrs. A. S. Himes & Co., of New Oxford, have purchased the entire stock of Dry Goods of R. R. Foutz, in New Oxford—the latter retiring from business.

THE REBEL DEAD.—Mr. GEORGE FREANER and Major H. K. Douglas, of Hagerstown, and J. A. Cambrill, of Frederick, have been appointed a committee to expend the $5,000 appropriated by the Legislature of Maryland for the collection and burial of the remains of the rebel dead who fell at Monocacy, South Mountain, Antietam and Gettysburg. A cemetery near Hagerstown has been chosen as the place of burial.

THE PLACE TO BUY.—The reader's attention is directed to the Card of Young, Smyth, Field and Co., of Philadelphia, in our advertising columns. It is the leading Notion and White Goods house in Philadelphia, well known all over the country. Mr. James J. Metcalfe, formerly of York Springs in this county, is connected with the house, from whom all merchants and others from this section will receive special attention.

INFORMATION WANTED.—In our advertising columns will be found a Card from the Consul of Wirtemburg at Philadelphia, in regard to an estate belonging to the heirs of Dr. Charles Christian Conrad Schoeck. We understand that he was a veterinary surgeon, and is probably the Dr. Schoeck who resided in Gettysburg some years ago and had some reputation as a Farrier.

HANOVER GAS WORKS.—Mr. Perry Taney, of this place, has the contract for building the Gas Works in Hanover—the building is to be stone, 115 feet long, 31 wide and 16 high. It is said to be the only stone building in that place. Although our neighbors were slow to move in the Gas line, they have at length gone energetically to work, and ere long the citizens of Hanover will enjoy the luxury of gas light. In securing Mr. Taney to put up the buildings, the Company has done well, as he is a thorough workman, with no superior in his line of business.

ADJOURNED COURT.—An adjourned Court, for the trial of civil cases, is in session this week. The following cases have been tried:

John Kuhn vs. Gettysburg National Bank. Summons in Debt. This case was tried before, with a verdict for Plaintiff; and taken to the Supreme Court, where it was reversed and a new trial ordered. The Jury this time, under instructions by the Court, rendered a verdict for the defendant.

John S. Stansbury vs. Abraham Sheely. Foreign Attachment. Verdict for defendant.

JAMES M. ROBINSON, as Administrator, has sold the property of Joseph Clunk, (blacksmith) in Mountpleasant township, for $1,005 to Andrew Hill.

LOOK HERE.—E. Woodward has commenced, in connection with his Gunsmithing, the repairing of Umbrellas, Parasols &c., which he will warrant to be better fixed than is done by the majority of Umbrella-menders. Any person wishing work done in this line can leave word at his shop on Carlisle Street, and it will be sent for and returned. Charges moderate. He also has still on hand a variety of Battle-field Relics, of any kind and style, a large assortment of Canes, &c. Call and see him. tf

On Wednesday afternoon the "Gettysburg Nine" and the "Alpines" of Emmittsburg played a game on the Fair Grounds in this place, which was witnessed by a number of ladies and gentlemen. The first four innings were carelessly played on both sides, with indifferent fielding. From that out, the playing was sharper.—On the 4th inning, the Alpines got the range of Cunningham's balls, who had been sent in temporarily as pitcher, and batted heavily, scoring 20 runs. We annex the score—the game having been called at the end of the 8th inning, by reason of the lateness of the hour:

Umpire—McClellan Hersh, of Little Brown Jug Club, New Oxford.
Scorers—Alpine, E. V. Sweeney; Gettysburg, H. D. Huber.
Fly catches—Gettysburg 6; Alpine 3.

In the evening a complimentary supper was given to the "Alpines," at the Eagle Hotel, which was gotten up in capital style by the clever proprietor, Col. Tate. The Emmittsburg club is composed of gentlemanly young men, who take their defeat good-naturedly, and made a favorable impression in Gettysburg.

The "Gettysburg Nine" request us to say that the "Little Brown Jug," of New Oxford, owe them a game, and they would like to have them "come to time."—Neighboring Base Ball Clubs would do well to remember that we have enclosed grounds for match games—the "Fair Ground."

"HITS AT THE TIMES."—On Friday evening next, Sept. 30, S. M. HEWLETT will deliver in Agricultural Hall, his celebrated Lecture, "Hits at the Times."—There is probably no more captivating platform talker in the country—at least no one whose services in the Lecture line are more eagerly sought for, as is evidenced by the fact he has now over 400 engagements running through this and next season. A capital talker, with sparkling wit and humor, he is always good, but in his "Hits at the Times," his wonderful powers are specially manifested. As it may be a long time before our people can have an opportunity to hear Mr. Hewlett again, we advise every one who wants to spend an enjoyable evening to go and hear him on Friday evening. That the general reader may know what is said about Mr. Hewlett where he has spoken, we annex a few extracts from numberless equally strong notices before us:

"Go hear Hewlett; if you are cross he will make you happy and cause you to love yourself and all around you."—Hon. James Meacham, Vt.

"A large audience last evening greeted his capital "Hit at the Times. He hit every body and hurt nobody. We think him the best deliverer for now before the people."—Pittsfield (Mass.,) Eagle.

"We heard S. M. Hewlett's lecture on Monday evening, and venture to say that such another was never delivered in our city before, for satire, for humor, for eloquence, for power of declamation, and for aptness of illustration. The annals of speech-making know no parallel."—Indianapolis (Ind.,) Journal.

"Nearly 1600 persons crowded into the Presbyterian Church yesterday to hear Mr. S. M. Hewlett. His effort was masterly and fulfilled all present. Twenty-eight years on the rostrum has given Mr. H. a knowledge of how to reach the hearts of the people."—Ann Arbor (Mich.,) Gazette.

"He is a living wonder. After two hours, cries of 'go on,' came from all quarters. We could have remained until morning."—Little Roc' (Ark.,) Gazette.

"As when a comet appears in the heavens and attracts the attention of the people from the lesser lights, so Mr. Hewlett appeared at Armory Hall last evening. We cannot express our delight and pleasure, but wish the whole world could hear him."—Charleston (S. C.,) Mercury.

FAIR.—The Agricultural Fair will open on Tuesday next. We are glad to learn that there is every indication that the exhibition will be a success.

THE BEST STOVE now in market, for beauty, economy, and comfort, is admitted all around to be the MORNING GLORY. It defies all competition, and that is the judgment of all who have used it. It is just the thing for Offices, Stores, Parlors and Chambers. Call at C. H. Buehler's Ware Room, opposite the Passenger Depot, and examine for yourselves. tf

DEDICATION POSTPONED.—The re-dedication services of Mountjoy Lutheran Church, announced for last Sabbath, (the 18th,) did not take place on account of the inclement weather. The services were postponed until Sunday the 2d of October, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The public and neighboring Ministers are invited to be present. Sept 23—2t

Also at the same time, he will sell a variety of valuable Stock, Farming Implements, Household Furniture, &c. See advertisement. It

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A good second-hand Falling and Shifting-top Buggy. Enquire at this office. tf

IMPORTANT NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The HEARTH AND HOME, a finely illustrated family journal of a high character, hitherto issued by Messrs. PETTENGILL, BATES & CO., has been purchased by Messrs. ORANGE JUDD & CO., of 245 Broadway, New York, the well-known publishers of the American Agriculturist. Messrs. S. M. PETTENGILL & CO., whose great Advertising Agency, established in 1849, is one of the largest and most reputable in the world, find that their extensive business requires their exclusive attention, and they therefore transfer HEARTH AND HOME to the new Publishers, whose long experience and abundant facilities will enable them not only to maintain the past high character of the paper, but to add, materially to its value. The new publishers also announce a reduction of the terms to $3 per year. The change will not at all affect the American Agriculturist, which will continue on independently as heretofore. The Illustrations and reading matter of the two journals will be entirely different. Either of the journals will be furnished from now to the end of 1871 (15 months), at the yearly subscription rate, viz.: the Weekly HEARTH AND HOME, or the Weekly AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, $1.60; or the two for $4.

ALWAYS AHEAD.—Capt. NORRIS is determined not to be outdone by rivals, and has again added largely to his stock for fall and winter wear. If you want a fashionable Hat, Cap, Pants or a good pair of Boots or Shoes or any kind of underwear as cheap as before the war—Norris' Head-Quarters is the place, (Arnold's corner) young gents. If you want a fashionable Tie or Bow, don't forget that Norris is getting new styles every week, and always has the latest. His stock of Hats is the largest in the county and greatly reduced in price, all styles and price. If you want to save money go to Norris' corner. Sept.16-tf

GETTYSBURG ZOUAVES—Will meet for Drill and Parade on the 24th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M., in full dress, with arms and accoutrements in good order. There will be Target practice for a Medal, the best shot to wear a Silver Medal and the worst a Leather Medal. It is also the request of the Captain that all old members who have not returned their uniforms and arms and accoutrements will do so at once, so we can have their places filled. Company drill in the armory every Monday and Thursday evenings. Those who cannot spare one hour at least every week, at the armory to learn to drill, is not fit to be a member, and the sooner he turns in his uniform the better for the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday the 26th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society will assign them places upon the ground. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to represent themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to continue to attend to it in the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the examination of horses, no person excepting those having charge of the stock, judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums, and grain will be provided at the lowest cost prices, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangements, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Premiums resting refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.
